Liffre slashed his stomach about 11 o'clock last night in his room on Nuanu street, near Vineyard. His brother-in-law, a man named King says worry was the cause.

BRITISH LOSSES IN JUTLAND FRAY

German Official Despatches Tell of Statements By Rescued Prisoners

German official despatches received today:
GERMAN HEADQUARTERS, June 7.—After the battle of Skagerrak, German sea forces brought in one ensign, one man of the Queen Mary, 2 men of the Indefatigable, 7 men of whom 2 were wounded, 3 Tipperary officers, 2 non-commissioned officers, 75 men of whom 6 were wounded, 4 Nestor officers, 63 men of whom was one officer, 10 men wounded, 14 Nomad men, all wounded, of the Turbulent.

These 177 British were rescued by German small cruisers and torpedo boats. Prisoners rescued by fifth torpedo boat flotilla declared that they saw the sinking of a small cruiser, and that the battle-cruiser Princess Royal had already listed heavily when her sister ship, Queen Mary, sank. Other British, rescued by the third torpedo boat flotilla, made written declaration that they saw with certainty the sinking of the Warspite, Princess Royal, the Turbulent, Nestor and Alcazar.

DELAYED REPORT.

GERMAN ADMIRALTY, June 4.—A German submarine on May 31 destroyed a large English modern torpedo destroyer, before Humber. According to statement by members of the crew of the sunk English destroyer Tipperary, who were rescued by Germans, the English armored cruiser Euryalus was shot afire in sea battle of Skagerrak by German forces and completely consumed by fire.

MEN TO SERVE BUT ONE YEAR BEFORE EXAMS.

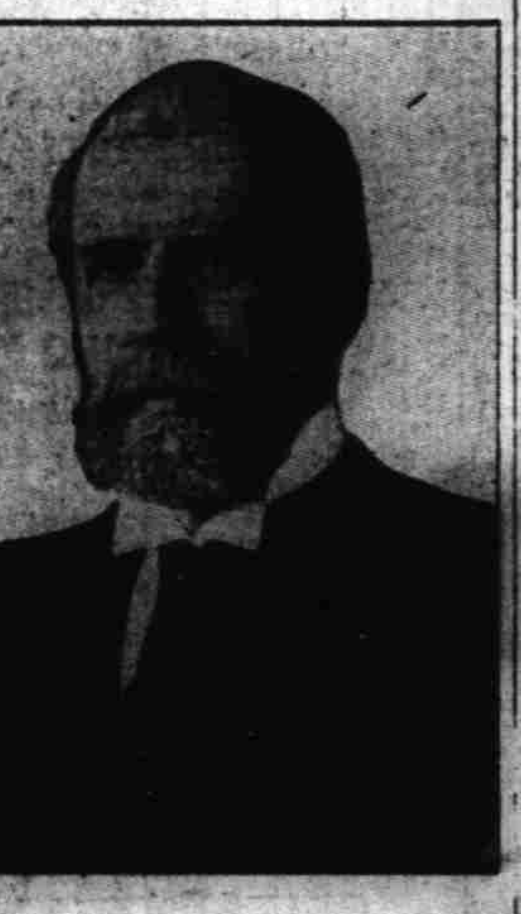

Cable advices from Washington to the Hawaiian department have been received here stating that enlisted men who have served with organizations for one year will be allowed to compete in examinations for promotion.

Word to this effect was forwarded this morning to the various posts of the local department and is considered one of the most important rulings that has come to army men here.

Formerly it was required that a man serve for two years before being allowed to compete in the examinations. It is evident that the reason for the rule is that which has caused the issuance of orders for officers' examinations, namely, the large number of positions to fill with the new army bill in effect.

CHARLES E. HUGHES

GERMAN OFFICIAL CABLEGRAMS

GERMAN HEADQUARTERS, June 7.—In extension of success obtained on June 2, on heights southeast of the Ypres, the upper Silesian Wurtemberg troops yesterday attacked British positions near Hodge. The rest of the village up to now is held by the enemy. Further connecting trenches westward and southward were taken by us. The entire heights in the southeast and east district of the Ypres, and extension of about three kilometers are in our hands. British losses were heavy. We again could capture only a small number of prisoners.

West of Meuse, strong French forces, after energetic artillery preparation, three times attacked our lines on Carrières heights, but were repulsed. The whole position without exception is in our hands. East of Meuse, hard fighting started on June 2, between Callette forest and Dambloup, and further progressed. An armored fort in Vaux since last night is completely in our hands.

In fact, the fortress on June 2 had been stormed by the 1st Company of the Paderborn Infantry regiment, under Lieut. Backow, assisted by the pioneers of the 1st Company, consisting of 20. The troops storming were soon followed by other troops. Publication until now was suppressed in view of the fact that the rest of the French garrison is still held in a subterranean room inaccessible to us. The rest surrendered. Number of prisoners, including those captured yesterday, during useless relieving attempts, reached more than 700 unwounded, and a large number of cannon, machine guns and mine throwers. Combats on heights on both sides of Vaux and on the ridge southwest of the village Dambloup were victorious terminated. The enemy during the last made desperate efforts to prevent the fall of fort and connecting positions. All counter attacks failed, with heavy losses. Besides Paderborn, other Westfalian, Lippe and east Prussian troops especially distinguished in combats. Emperor bestowed on Backow an order of Pour le Merite.

GERMAN HEADQUARTERS, June 8.—Western war theater: Artillery engagements on both sides of the Meuse continue with undiminished violence.

Eastern war theater: South of Smorgon, German reconnoitering parties advanced beyond several hostile lines into the village of Kunava, destroyed fighting establishments there, and returned with 40 prisoners and one machine gun. The rest of the front, no events on lines of German troops are occurring. Balkan war theater: Towns near Donaralake were bombarded by hostile flyers without any success.

GERMAN HEADQUARTERS, June 9.—Western war theater: German artillery near Libons southwest of Peronne caused explosion of hostile ammunition depots and shelled hostile camps and a troop transport near railroad station Suippes, Champagne, and obtained visible good success west bank of Meuse against French batteries as well as infantry and automobile track columns.

Right of Meuse: Engagement progresses advantageously for Germans. Hostile counter attacks with strong forces on Douaumont wood and between Chapiniet forest and Fort Vaux broke down without exception. Enemy suffered heavy losses. In Vosges, west of Saint Die, Germans by mine blasting destroyed extended part of hostile trenches.

If $5,000 were placed at the disposal of the British government, it would meet the expenses of war on land and sea and of troops in training for one minute and a half.

ROOSEVELT'S OPPOSITION IS NOW EXPECTED

Previous to Nominations He Had Come Out for Lodge as Compromise Candidate; No Comment on His Own Naming; Hughes at Lunch When Informed of Coliseum Action; Wilson Supporters Are Jubilant at Break

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
OYSTER BAY, New York, June 10.—Col. Roosevelt's attitude is believed to be definitely against Charles E. Hughes.

Previous to the nominations of the two conventions today Roosevelt telegraphed to the Progressives at Chicago, suggesting that Senator H. C. Lodge of Massachusetts would be a compromise candidate upon which both parties could unite in friendship. It is believed that this attitude of the Colonel's precludes his approval of Mr. Hughes.

When notified of the action of the Progressives in nominating him, Mr. Roosevelt made no comment.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.

Justice Hughes was taking lunch at his home here today when he was informed by active reporters that he had been nominated by the Republicans. "I shall probably make a statement later," was all he would say at this time. It was after this that he telegraphed his acceptance to Harding.

Former Attorney-general George W. Wickersham, who had a talk with Hughes on Thursday, said when informed of the nomination, "I presume he will accept. I don't see how he can help it."

At the White House no comment could be secured from anyone in official or authoritative position as to the developments at Chicago, but the supporters of President Wilson are plainly delighted at the situation and are very optimistic of the success of the president next November.

How Hawaii's Vote Went In Chicago

BY JOSEPH R. FARRINGTON
(Star-Bulletin correspondent at the Chicago conventions.)

CHICAGO, Ill., June 10.—Hawaii joined in the landslide for Charles E. Hughes of New York on the third ballot today.

Hawaii also cast her two votes for Fairbanks for the vice-presidential nominee. On the first ballot last evening the territorial delegation went one vote for Burton and one for Weeks. On the second ballot the delegation went for Weeks and Hughes similarly. At that time Robert W. Breckons predicted the nomination of Hughes and Delegate Kuhio said Hughes could be elected if both parties should unite on him.

PROGRESSIVES PLANNED TO NOMINATE WHEN C. O. P. BEGAN TODAY'S BALLOT

A. L. C. Atkinson, Progressive national committeeman for Hawaii, received this morning the following Federal Wireless despatch from George R. Carter, Bull Moose delegate at Chicago:

"Conference without result. We shall nominate when they begin to ballot, and then all hope of compromise passes.

"Suffragists win point by removal of word 'male' from platform.

"Senator Borah, searching for inspiration, addressed our convention—he got it."

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

MINGLED HOPE AND FEAR SUM UP LOCAL VIEW

Many Well-Informed Honoluluans Think Hughes Can't Win With Divided Party

Keen disappointment is the prevailing expression of many leading Republicans and businessmen at the outcome of the Chicago convention.

A number requested by the Star-Bulletin to voice their views did not wish to be quoted, but others were frank and emphatic in their statement.

Perhaps the one man who appears really pleased is William Thompson, long active in Republican committee ranks, and for whom is claimed the honor of being the "original Hughes man."

On July 14, 1915, Thompson returned from the mainland predicting the nomination of Justice Hughes and an interview with this prediction was published in the Star-Bulletin at that time. He pointed today to this interview as proof of the "original Hughes" qualification. Concerning the nomination he said:

"The country is to be congratulated on the action of the Republican party in nominating Justice Hughes for president."

"His record as governor of New York gives a foretaste of his caliber. I consider him the strongest man throughout the nation today and the one man who can best unite all factions."

Asked for an expression of opinion, E. D. Tenney said: "If either of the two men nominated had received the endorsement of both of the conventions he would undoubtedly have been elected, but as it is, it appears that there can be nothing else than four more votes of Woodrow Wilson."

A. L. C. Atkinson, Progressive, said: "The inability of the nation to get together on any great issue is demonstrated. America has yet to wake up to hold the world position she is entitled to. Great things are taking place and a man who has not expressed himself on the world issues today, as is the case with Mr. Justice Hughes, is not entitled to election as president of the United States. Four years ago Roosevelt, in a personal campaign, received over 4,000,000 votes. This time it is a campaign on principle. The Progressive party has learned how to campaign from that campaign. Anything is likely to happen in the next four months to change the entire aspect of affairs."

"Do not think that Roosevelt is eliminated. I hope that he will accept. If

TEDDY EXPECTED TO STAY IN RACE; BULL MOOSE CONFEREES TURN DOWN ALL COMPROMISE

Colonel's Followers Refuse To Indorse Lodge or Hughes

Delegates in Auditorium Shriek Hysterically as Rough Rider is Given Uproarious Ballot—Fairbanks Nominated by Big Majority But Had Telegraphed From Indianapolis He Would Decline

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless)
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.—Justice Chas. E. Hughes accepts the Republican nomination.

He has telegraphed his acceptance to Senator Harding, chairman of the Republican convention. He has also sent to the president his resignation as associate justice of the supreme court.

Two Nominations Simultaneous; Wild Scenes at Progressive Hall

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless)
CHICAGO, Ill., June 10.—Charles E. Hughes of New York was nominated for president on the third ballot of the Republican national convention today.

Simultaneously Col. Theodore Roosevelt was nominated by the Progressives, precipitating an unexpected situation and one which has stirred veteran politicians to the very depths.

The Progressives had been clamoring louder and louder for the nomination of the Colonel and when finally his name was before the convention in the Auditorium it was taken up by the states in one continuous shout and he was nominated unanimously.

It was just as Chairman Raymond Robins was endeavoring to announce to the frenzied delegates that Roosevelt had been unanimously nominated that the word was flashed by telephone and telegraph from the Coliseum that Hughes had been nominated by the Republicans.

The convention was beyond all bounds of order then and there was no way to inform the delegates of the developments at the Coliseum. The chairman pounded like mad for order and sent sergeants-at-arms out to force the delegates to quiet but it was five minutes before order could be secured.

Then, when Robins announced the result of the Republican ballot, a motion to adjourn was shouted over the hall.

Robins mentioned the nomination of a Progressive candidate for vice-president as the next in order and from all sides went up shouts of "Johnson!" but the motion to adjourn was carried by acclamation and the excited delegates adjourned until three this afternoon.

The nomination of Roosevelt had witnessed another remarkable demonstration by the Progressive delegates just a few moments previously. They shrieked hysterically when the Colonel's name was being balloted for, threw hats and coats into the air, hugged each other and tramped through the aisles.

Previous to this the platform had been adopted by acclamation, without a roll-call.

Hughes Gets Big Vote, Then It Is Made Unanimous By The Convention

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless)
COLISEUM, Chicago, June 10.—Charles Evans Hughes of New York was nominated by the Republicans on the third ballot of the convention and the first taken today, and nominated by almost the united delegations.

The vote stood as follows:
For Hughes, 949 1/2.
For Roosevelt, 18 1/2.
For Dupont, 6.
For Weeks, 3.
For Lodge, 7.
Absent, 1.

Later the vote was made unanimous, upon motion.

Justice Hughes had received the necessary majority of 540 votes half the roll-call had passed. New Jersey's vote carried him to the majority and just past.

Hawaii gave Hughes its vote of two.

FAIRBANKS NOMINATED FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

Charles Warren Fairbanks of Indiana was nominated for vice-president with a vote of 863 against 103 for Burkett, while other votes were scattered as follows: For Johnson of California, 1; for Borah, 3; for Webster, 2; for Burton, 1. Not voting, 3. Absent, 1. Hawaii gave its two votes to Fairbanks.

Fairbanks was placed in nomination by John Wansmaker.

HAWAII GETS CHANCE FOR ACTION.

Both Hawaii and the Philippines seconded the nomination of Fairbanks for Vice-President, and the nomination was made unanimously.

Chairman Harding meanwhile had telegraphed to Hughes:

"With deliberation, enthusiasm and unanimity unexcelled in the past you have been nominated by the convention today. Your eminent fitness, sterling integrity and unsullied private character are appreciated by your countrymen. We congratulate you and the country."

During the exciting moments of the session Senator Smoot of the Republican conference committee named to confer with the Progressives read the proposal of Col. Roosevelt that Senator Lodge be selected as the compromise candidate. The galleries cheered, expressing the desire for harmony.

PROGRESSIVES TURN DOWN HUGHES.

Smoot then announced that the Progressives had tabled the recommendation that Lodge be the compromise man, and that they had also tabled the suggestion from the Republican conferees that Hughes be selected.

Senator Weeks early today withdrew from the race and announcement was also made that the Lawrence Y. Sherman delegates of Illinois had been released. This preceded the ordering of the third ballot.

The convention adjourned at 2:01 this afternoon.
